“ What an awesome man! I had the pleasure in being his and Marilyn's neighbor for years and enjoyed my visits immensely. Inevitably I would see Dean out walking his beloved dogs, Penny and later on Hank and Cody, and would stop to give the dogs a treat as Dean and I would chit-chat. I still remember his awesome chicken lunch he once made for my husband and myself, and shared his passion for the model plane he was in the midst of making. I'm sorry he didn't have a chance to finish it for a "grand take-off".

You have so much to remember and cherish always. May all those precious memories comfort your heart. Dean's spirit is soaring on a joyful breeze where rainbows begin. Today and always we celebrate his life.

“ My name is Shirley Bloyd Lester. I noticed Dean's obituary in The Arizona Republic, and of course, the Bloyd name stood out, especially since he was born in Lincoln, Kansas. I don't remember ever meeting Dean which must mean that your family moved from the Lincoln area soon after he was born. My brother, Jerry, was also born in 1925, and I was born in 1930. My dad's name is Virgil, and my mom's name is Queena. My husband is John Lester, and we've lived in Arizona for 54 years. He is very interested in genealogy, and by tracing our family history found that Dean and I are second cousins. If any of your family comes to the Phoenix area, we would like to meet you. We live in a retirement cottage in Friendship Village Tempe. Our address is 2526 E. Southern Ave., Tempe 85282. Our telephone number is 480-831-3784. We send our sympathy to you, and perhaps we can meet sometime.

“ Dean, our dear friend and neighbor, will be so missed. What an amazing man. He lived a full life. He served his country, which is documented in his book "Flak at 12 O'Clock" published in 2001. We are honored to have a signed copy. What an experience he had. We shared our love of books, exchanging favorites. He was a true gentleman! We looked forward to Dean's annual Jumbo and Potato Soup feast. What a cook! Dean was a guest in our home many times. His last time was to help us celebrate our 50th Anniversary. Dean rest in peace. We love you and will remember you always.
