“ Life here on earth was hard from the beginning, you survived multiple health challenges that would have taken a weaker man. You are now whole and intact, warm in the embrace of God. I am looking forward to the day I get to meet you with no disabilities. Rest in peace brother; till we meet again.

“ I am so sad to hear this. Lance, you were such a good guy, even in spite of troubles and things the world threw at you. Deep down, you were very thoughtful and polite. I'm proud to have been your friend and also to say I actually learned some things about patience from you. God bless your family and thank you. -Kevin Foster

“ Lance Wells was loved by all, he never complained about the things he was going through he was a fighter some say he was a hero in their books. The only thing he wanted out of life was not to be in the wheelchair he was in. He also said if dad could see me now, I told him that he would be very proud of what you are going through and tell him to press on and upward. Lance will be missed by all who loved him. Rest In Peace my dear sweet brother Lance Wells
