“ To Larry and family,

I'm so sorry for your loss. Prayers for peace and contenment in what our Heavenly Father has planned for her. Your mom has went to be with him and is no longer in pain. As we each make the journey home we too will know the full plan. I share your sorrow, you are not alone. Love, Lynn Klte

“ I thank Mary for giving me the chance to prove my accounting skills. Many years ago, Mary was the Office Manager at Prescott Dodge and had an opening for an Accounts Payable Clerk. I applied as I had the book-learning and was a dependable worker. Mary gave me the chance for experience for which I shall be eternally grateful. She saw more than a long-time Prescott gal in me and knew I would be a good worker, one who was anxious to learn new skills.
May she rest in peace--she has had a wonderful life!
