“ MOM

Where do I begin to let you know
How much I dearly love you so

The same my life will never be
Without you - each day to see

I miss our talks, our special time
The bond we have is one of a kind

Our checker games – you mostly beat
To win you was no easy feat

Remembering the rides to the blackberry patch
And for the changing leaves, to get us a batch

Springtime will remind me of the flower beds you would groom
And your lawn so spotless, like it was swept with a broom

Lots of memories I hold in my heart
Never ever will we be apart

To watch a butterfly flitter by...I'll think of you
And know that your spirit will tug...don't be blue!

To be in God's care with no more pain
Our earthly loss is Heaven's gain

I will always feel your special love
Sent now from Heaven above

Someday, mom, we'll be together again-
I'll spend eternity with my best friend!

Your new kingdom has come
Know always Melody, Curt, Dave and Hillary will love the world's greatest Mom!
We love you!
