“ This is how we will remember you. Full of love and happy to be a mother. Your silly comments and complaints, your hot tamales, your music, cruising the strip or going to the lake the way you said "dude", your eccentric hands when telling a story , your amazing laugh and perfect figure but most of all your ability to light up the room when you smiled. When Amy was having a good time, we all did. Your at peace now, no more pain. Forever missed and always loved ”

“ Amy Jean I look up to you more than anyone in this world. You fought and fought and fought until you couldn't anymore. You were an amazing woman, strong, courageous, and you were the best mom to Pierson! I'll never forget all our memories, dos - jäger on the rocks especially!! When I'm not sick anymore I'll have one for old time sakes. I miss you so much it hurts. You're my beautiful, strong Angel above who I'll always have watching over me. Time to add your initials to your tattoo I got for you! Gone but never forgotten beautiful!! FLY HIGH ANGEL!! ”

“ Amy, I will never forget you.. During our childhood and school days, we were never that close but you were always friendly to me and that meant a lot to me. I am glad we reconnected through facebook and got to know each other better. You are and always will be an inspiration to all on how to stay strong and be a fighter when theres nothing else you would rather do than give up..I know Pierson will always know how much his mother loved and cherished him.. I know you are at peace now and no longer in pain which is a relief to all of us that care about you,even though we are sad you are gone. Fly with the angels sweet lady.
To Amy's family I send my deepest sympathy and you all are in my heart and prayers..

“ Amy, I feel like you were a member of our family too! We watched you grow & mature into a loving Mother and then saw you cruelly invaded by cancer. You fought hard to remain on this earth for Pierson, but I am glad your pain is finally over! Rest in peace! You will never be forgotten! Love, Joe & Pam
