

Barbara Claybaugh

September 29, 1942 - November 29, 2014

Barbara Lindemann Claybaugh, Age 72, of Prescott, passed away November 29th, 2014. Barbara was born September 29th, 1942 in Milwaukee WI, the daughter of Walter R. Lindemann and Mary Davey Lindemann. Barbara served as Director of Alumni Outreach at Yavapai College and dedicated a great deal of time fundraising for the construction of the Family Enrichment Center at the College. Barbara is survived by her mother Mary, her sons Bill and his wife Nicole and Trevor and her grandchildren Liam and Angela. There will be a celebration of life in Milwaukee at a date to be announced. Donations can be sent in her name to Yavapai College Foundation. Arrangements entrusted to the care of the Hampton Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ I met Barbara when I worked with her on the reunion banquet for the Nursing Department at Yavapai College. She was a hard worker and always smiling and cheerful. Even when things went wrong, she never lost her cool. I was so sorry when I learned several years ago that she was ill. I'll always remember her beautiful smile. I am so sorry for your loss. Linda Vanderbloom

Linda Vanderbloom - December 03, 2014 at 10:48 AM