“ I was stunned to see Bev has moved to another world. My condolences to the family. I am so sorry for your loss. I don't know your grief, but I know what losing a mother is like. and I hope you will accept this hug from me.

“ I have known Bev McMillin 45 years. I was only 12 when both our families moved to Prescott to help form a Bahai community. Bev and my mother Mary Ellen were friends and I was friends and playmates with the McMillin kids: Chris, Kim, Danny, and Jay. I have stayed in touch all these years--Chris and I remaining close even though I am in Alaska now--and considered Bev a friend too once I was an adult.

I am unable to attend the service but wanted to share some of my fond memories. I loved her frugality--she could get every morsel out of a peanut butter jar before throwing it out! Her gingerbread cookies were a favorite of mine and I am hoping the recipe can be passed down to me. I was truly impressed the first time I saw her play softball at a Bahai picnic at Thumb Butte. I found out years later that Bev had been recruited by the women's baseball league during WWII when all the men were at war. She told me that despite having all brothers, she was the only athletic one in the family.

She will be greatly missed and I will be thinking of all of you on Saturday.

“ Kim, Chris, Jay and family,
This made my heart very heavy. From the time I declared my faith in Baha'u'llah, in 1981, Beverly was a constant presence. She tended to the needs of my wife and son, when they first arrived back in Prescott in 1992, while I was finishing up my work in Korea. Always forthright and steadfast, this dear friend kept us all focused on the real needs of the day. I find it no accident that the latest sea change in my life happened almost as soon as your dear mother ascended to the World of Vision.
Many blessings be to all of you, in the months and years to come.
