

Elizabeth Crile

April 28, 1920 - January 14, 2012

Elizabeth “Betty” Crile passed away peacefully on January 14, 2012, in Prescott, Arizona. After moving to Phoenix from New Jersey in 1948, Betty met Eugene “Gene” Crile, married and had two daughters. During her 91 years of life Betty was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She volunteered her services to Girl Scouts of America, Goodwill Industries and was a founding member of Desert Sage Questers. Her artistic talents were appreciated by many and continued to be treasured. She spent the last few years close to her daughter in Prescott. Betty was preceded in death by her husband Gene, brother Thomas Fleming and sister Florence Fleming. She is survived by daughters Beth Crile (Tim Shiflett) and Karen Crile (John Ravert); grandchildren: Erann Kalwara, Donovan Ravert, and Daphne Buck; five great-granddaughters; sister June Moffat and brother John Moir. The family has requested any donations in lieu of flowers be sent to Good Samaritan Hospice 1065 Ruth Street, Prescott, AZ 86301.
