

Frances Mae Edmond

May 15, 1930 - January 17, 2015

Frances Mae Edmond, 84, of Prescott, Arizona, passed away peacefully while watching Lehar's Opera, "The Merry Widow" on Saturday January 17, 2015 at Yavapai Community College. While Fran didn't particularly want an obituary, her surviving daughter, Terry Hill of Scottsdale, didn't think she would mind the community knowing she was happy and relatively healthy to the very end. So raise a glass of bourbon or red wine and salute the passing of a woman who truly enjoyed her life! A memorial service will be held on February 11, 2015 1:30 pm at the First Baptist Church of Prescott in the main sanctuary. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations in her memory be made to the Salvation Army.

“Fran, always at table 4, which is right next to the main entry door of the duplicate bridge games was always the first to greet everyone by name when he/she walked in. That meant so much to me, especially when I was a newcomer. Such a lady she was. We all will truly miss her. Mary Beigel

“Fran was always so kind, helpful and welcoming. Although we have moved away, we can never forget that she was the first person we had contact with in the Prescott bridge community and she represented it with warmth and dignity. Table 4 should have a plaque on it in her honor. Our sincere condolences go to her family. Stan and Judy Shamitz

“ Dear Hill family and other family members.
Fran was one of my best friends and we shared so many fun times together.
We loved going to Cedar City for the Shakespeare plays, going to Jazz at the college, sitting on the square on Tuesdays in the summer, and just plain having fun.
I will miss her terribly.

“ Fran was such an amazing woman! I volunteered at CAP in the library with her about 12 or so years ago and she was so much fun! She loved the kids and loved her life.
I delighted in hearing about your family Mrs. Hill and how proud she was of her family! you were her light!
I am so sorry to hear of Fran's passing, but I know that she is with God and smiling from above. Playing Bridge no doubt as well.
May the many happy memories be your comfort during this time.
Sincerely,

“ I didn't know Fran well, but whenever I saw her I saw a stately, attractive, warm person who always greeted you. I knew her through bridge at the Adult Center, where I was lucky enough to partner with her only once. She was the model for how a bridge player's demeanor should be. I fondly remember also seeing her on the Courthouse Square during the summer activities, watching folks dance on Jazz Tuesdays...always there with a smile and a compliment.

I wish I had known her better, but I'm glad I knew her as an acquaintance. Her class and elegance will be missed!
