

Harry E. Pelliccione

October 23, 1923 - November 19, 2013

Harry E Pelliccione, age 90, of Chino Valley passed away with Carol by his side on Nov. 19, 2013 at the NAVA HERO'S WAY HOSPICE in Prescott, AZ. He was born in Ligonier, Penn. on Oct. 23, 1923 to Estella and Harry Pelliccione.

He lived a life worth living. He proudly served his country in the US Marine Corps during WW II in the South Pacific. After the war, he came home, married Barbara Walker. He was a plumber/pipe fitter who could fix a single faucet or run jobs as large as building chemical plants. He loved hunting and fishing, but most of all, he loved his family and friends.

Harry is survived by his daughter, a son, three sisters, a brother, grandchildren, great grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and cousins. He will be missed by all who knew him and whose lives he passed through. Harry will be laid to rest in Pinedale, WY beside his wife, Barbara, who preceded him in death. There will be no services per Harry's wishes. Arrangements were entrusted to Hampton Funeral Home.

“ We met Harry several years ago while volunteering with Meals-on-Wheels; he volunteered as well, delivering meals several times a week. Seeing Harry was always a day-brightener! He was so friendly and had a great sense of humor -- always made us laugh. His energy and zest for life was a real inspiration. Harry will be missed, and we send sincere condolences to his family.
