“Annette and Family, we were so saddened when we heard about Mike, We pray that the Lord will help you through these difficult times and bring you peace. Though we hadn't seen him since the move to Arizona, what we remember most is that Mike always had a smile on his face and a joke to tell. From Apolonio and Evelyn Gonzales .

“ Mike was a great person and a great cousin. His family was at the core of his being. I am holding you all in my heart. I remember he took me to blackjack. Told me he didn't go there often. Every dealer that came to the table knew him by name! That's the kind of man he was, he left an impression on those he met. Rest in peace Mike.

“ I called for Mike today and learned of his passing into God's presence. It was a joy to be Mike's training partner...his high energy and positive outlook will be missed. My prayers are for God's peace, comfort and restoration of joy to be with Mike's family, friends and co-workers...that each one of you would know our merciful God in new and meaningful ways.
