“ My brother was a great person and I believe he had a truly good soul. Though very difficult and a mess he was a great man and great prson who loved his parents and only wanted people to be proud of him he desired love and attention from his famy more than any one ever knew. He is my brother and I love and miss him every day. In the last 2years he had limproved and I as so proud of his changes. You are loved and missed ill see you again one day.
