

Jimmie Floyd Looper

August 26, 1945 - April 11, 2024

Jimmie “Jim” Floyd Looper, Sr. passed away on April 11, 2024 at his home in Prescott, Arizona. Jim was born August 26, 1945 in Phoenix, Arizona to Elvin Newton Looper and Wona Belle McNorton (Looper).

Jim was the sixth of nine children. Throughout his childhood, his family were traveling field workers picking cotton, fruit and other crops throughout the western States. After this humble beginning, Jim pursued his passion for welding earning a reputation as an excellent metal fabricator and craftsman.

Jim married Lana Mae Smith in 1963. They had three children and in an effort to provide a better life for their children, they moved from South Phoenix to Prescott in 1978.

Survivors include his wife of 61 years, Lana Mae Looper, his children Jimmie Floyd Looper, Jr. Tamra Kelly (Thomas), Kasey Looper; grandchildren, Tad Bryant (Dayna), Brittany Looper, Taytum Vermilyea (Luke), Cole Looper, Brawley Rio Looper, Saige Looper and eight great grandchildren, who were his pride and joy. Jim is also survived by his baby brother, Danny Looper.

The Looper family would like to share their sincere appreciation for the kindness, compassion and professionalism provided by Maggie's House in assisting in the care and support of Jim during the recent months.

There will be no service at this time. Any donations can be made to Camp Courage of Prescott in Jim's name.

Tribute Wall

RD

“ Ricky and Sheri Denny purchased the Country Basket Blooms for the family of Jimmie Floyd Looper.

Ricky and Sheri Denny - April 19, 2024 at 11:58 PM