“ There is so much to say about a person who lives over 104 years, it was difficult to squeeze it all in for the obituary notice and make it in time for the Sunday Courier. I want take the opportunity to add some more details about the mom I remember, especially with Mothers Day being tomorrow, which will be the first one without her. It's as tough writing this as it was trying to talk at her memorial a month ago.

Besides being a mother, grandmother and great grandmother, she was a great friend,. Probably as good a friend as a person could ever have. She was generous, loving and could always be counted on to do what she could to help, when needed. She had done volunteer work at Memorial Hospital in Long Beach, after retiring and enjoyed volunteering at the VA here in Prescott in the late 80's. Whatever she did she always brought her sense of humor with her. As I can attest, as can various care givers, even during the toughest of times she could be ready with a smile. Laugh, or even joke. Despite having a multitude of things to complain about in her later years, she was basically just an enjoyable person to be around. She lived independently, for the most part, doing all that she could for herself for over 103 years and did what she could beyond that. She was still reading daily and solving Wheel of Fortune puzzles beyond 103. She could still keep track of what the Cardinals and Suns were doing till near the end. She fought and fought to keep going. It was not an easy 104 years, 7 months and 7 days. I am so proud of her and love her so much. She is greatly missed. And to you Mom, Happy Mothers Day....Love, Jim
