“ I have been trying to get a hold of Marv for the past few years, but didn't have a lot of information to go on. He was a good friend and we had a lot of fun singing folk songs back in High School. Who knows if we were any good. I am sorry to find out he is gone.

“ Worked with Marv back in the sixties in a band called Colorstorm and stayed with him in Salt Lake. A real gentleman and very fond memories of the time I spent with him.
