“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and I hope the following suggestions help the family members and those who loved Michelle Leigh Daniels to lessen their grief.

- Talk about your feelings to “a true companion” who will listen patiently and sympathetically.
- If you have feelings of guilt thinking that some neglect on your part contributed to your loved one's death, realize though, that no matter how much we love another person, we cannot prevent “time and unforeseen occurrence from befalling those we love. (Ecclesiastes 9:11)

More than anything else, a relationship with God can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. Isaiah 33:24 promises the time when an end to sickness will become a reality. God will put an end to pain, suffering and even DEATH. God promises at Isaiah 25:8 that death will be swallowed up forever.

“ Michelle was my friend and my work roommate for 2 years. When speaking to people of Michelle the constant theme was what a positive shining light she was. She was a bright light in my life and I will miss deeply.

“ Chelley.... we've been friends for over 15 years ever since I moved to Az., & I'll cherish all of our memories together. Standing up in each other's weddings, our beautiful children, all of our fun get-togethers over the years, your awesome cooking, and most of all...our friendship. The thing I think about the most that makes me smile, is how easy is was to make you laugh. You were an easy audience, and I will always remember the times we laughed until we cried. I'm grateful your long fight is over, but I will always miss you, my friend. Just know that Brannon & I will always be there for Deej and Shea. Love you & miss you..... Jen

“ Life is a treasure. It is times such as these that we realize it most. I know what Michelle meant to many, and what a beautiful family that she had. She blessed me in a conversation last year that I will not soon forget. DJ, you are a special person. I grieve with you, knowing full well the pain that comes with death of a loved one that is so close to you. I pray that you will draw near to God and allow him to draw near to you. Blessings to you and Shea, and to Michelle's parents as well. Glory be to God

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life, he who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and he who lives and believes in me will never die". John 11:25-26
