

Nina L Noble

June 26, 1957 - February 14, 2022

Nina L. Noble of Prescott, AZ, formerly of San Diego, CA, passed away on February 14, 2022 surrounded by her loving family and friends. Nina was born on June 26, 1957 in Attleboro, MA

She is survived by her children Stephanie Moody and her fiancé Ben Ogden of Bryan, TX, Julian and his wife Jenna Fong of Oakland, CA, Colin and his wife Eleanore Hendrickson of San Diego, CA, Emma and her partner Nick Romano of Boston, MA, and her stepchildren Morgan and her partner JR Delia and their children Wyatt and West of Syracuse, NY, Ian of Boston, MA, and by her mother Anita Johnson of Marco Island, FL, her brother Phil Johnson and his wife Suzi Abramson Johnson of Prescott, AZ, her brother Joel Johnson of Marco Island, FL, and her sister Madeline and her husband Jim Albani of Marion, MA. She also leaves behind many adoring nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

Nina's love of life was only outshined by her love for her children. More than anything, she desired to nurture a large family and pass along a legacy of love. She began this journey by raising her two daughters and two sons, by embracing her two stepchildren as her own, and finally by giving an immeasurable amount of love to her children's partners.

Nina's love was not limited to her family; she freely shared this gift with friends. Although Nina spent most of her years in San Diego cultivating an immense circle of friends, in the short time she lived in Prescott she broadened this circle even further by finding kinship in her various hobbies.

Her shining smile was infectious, and her presence irresistible to those who knew her.

Nina was a lover of art and design, and she lived to surround herself and her loved ones with beautiful decor. She filled her home with her own spectacular paintings awash with life and color, which will be passed on and cherished by her family.

It is poetic that Nina, who sculpted her life with unconditional love, passed on Valentine's Day. Her enduring love for her family and friends warms and comforts us all. The world is a more beautiful place for having had her in it. In lieu of flowers, please share your devotion to Nina by donating to the following organizations that were near and dear to Nina, or to a charity of your choice.

“ Dear Nina’s family. I know many months have passed but I still think of Nina often. I loved her little chuckle and wry sense of irony. She so loved all her family and her life centered on all of you. She is deeply missed. Linda

“ Condolences to the family, many of whom I've met. You're in my thoughts and prayers. My grief, as a friend, is raw and the tears flow at the strangest moments. We all know that her family was the center of her world - she lived for her family. Nina brought a bright light into this world, and now it is dispersed to those who loved her. I will keep her light in my heart.

“ Sending condolences to all of the family as you grieve. Nina had such an impact in this world, her spirit touched so many. She made us all feel so special, so loved. But you are family, and you must know that you were always the center of her world. Many prayers and hugs are being sent to each of you.

Working alongside of Nina was always so fulfilling! Her smile, wicked sense of humor, work ethic, talents, and beautiful spirit of volunteerism was legendary.

“ I met Nina when Stephanie and my daughter, Jenn, we're starting kindergarten. Nina and I happened to be sitting next to each other when the kindergarten teacher, Miss W, introduced herself and gave all the mommies a little rundown on what to expect in her class. Nina and I hit it off and were chatting like old friends in no time. Nina asked if I knew anyone there and neither of us did, but we soon became close friends. Nina also introduced the girls to each other before we left and Jenn and Stephanie skipped off holding hands and became lifelong friends. I always remember this about Nina. She knew how to make friends and family feel comfortable and appreciated. It is sad to lose someone with such a warm and loving heart ❤️
