

Stanley Harold Rowley

May 1, 1927 - June 3, 2017

Stanley Harold Rowley 90, of Prescott, Arizona passed away on June 3, 2017. He was always the Jolly Rowley with a friendly, gregarious smile for all. Born in Globe, AZ, Stan grew up in Phoenix and played football for North High, then served in the Navy during WWII in the Pacific. Later he attended Arizona State College in Flagstaff where he lettered all four years playing football. After graduating, he taught wood shop for 41 years for Prescott Public Schools. Stan loved hiking with his dogs and family around Prescott and especially at Mt. Rainier National Park where he was a ranger for three summers. Stan was married to his beloved wife Barbara for 68 years. He was Dad to Kathy (George), Steve (Debra), Karen (Bob), Terry, Nancy and Stash (Sara) and later Papa to his grandchildren Genny Rowley, Lesley Slaughter; Kevin, Patrick and Kerry Marnell; Dan and Jon Kellerman; Stash, Eric and Ashley Rowley and to his great-grandchildren Leighton Kellerman, Simon and Raleigh Slaughter, and Claire Day-Rowley. A celebration of a long, full life will be held at a later date. Memorial gifts may be made to United Animal Friends, P.O. 11133, Prescott, AZ 86304 or Yavapai Humane Society, 1625 Sundog Ranch Road, Prescott, AZ 86301.

Tribute Wall

DK

“ Stan was a true mentor to me especially in those formative years. The can do kind of spirit that will always be with me, also an inspiration and guide in all those wonderful life skills he taught, thank you Stan. All the best to the family Stan was one hell of a guy I will always remember him as a positive spirit and inspiration. David Klein, Nelson New Zealand

---

David Klein - June 11, 2017 at 11:56 PM