

Terry Louise Munderloh

November 14, 1939 - August 19, 2013

Terry Louise Munderloh, age 73, passed away at her home in Prescott, Arizona on August 19, 2013. She was born on November 14, 1939 in Ravenna, Ohio to Jay and Alice Littlepage.

Terry worked as an electronics analyst for Motorola and Global-Wulfsberg Avionics until she retired in 1993. Terry loved her time with family and friends and held a great passion for all types of discussions. She was a scholar of Arizona History and wrote several history articles that were published in "Days Past". She was an award winning quilter and longtime volunteer at the Sharlot Hall Museum Archives and Territorial Rose Garden. Her laughter will be sorely missed.

She is survived by her husband, Jerry Munderloh; sons: Dirck (Susan Mary) Leibold, Aaron Leibold; stepsons, Marty (Barbara) Munderloh; John (Bonnie) Munderloh; and brother, Dick Littlepage. Per Terry's request, no services have been scheduled. Hampton Funeral Home was entrusted with the arrangements.
